

ABOUT MCGS

The McDonough County Genealogical Society is a non-profit, research organization striving to:

- stimulate interest in our heritage
- assist in genealogical research for educational, patriotic and historical purposes
- collect, preserve and safeguard records of genealogical and historical significance
- publish related materials for public use.

MEETINGS

Society meetings are the 3rd Monday of each month, except December. We encourage members and visitors to attend. A guest speaker presents a program at most meetings.

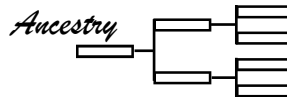

Please visit our web site or contact us for a list of topics and speakers, and meeting dates, times and locations.

COLLECTION

Our society collection includes:

- Land Records
- Cemetery Books
- Marriage records
- Church Records
- Census
- Funeral Home Records
- Family Surname Files
- Obituaries
- Published Family Histories
- County & Community Histories
- News Quarterlies
- Local Newspapers
- Maps & Atlases
- How-to books
- CD-ROM collection

Our collection also includes resources for neighboring counties and other states. A microfilm printer and a photocopier are available. Access is free to MCGS members. A small donation is requested from non-members.

NEARBY RESOURCES:

The Courthouse and the Macomb Public Library are a block away. The Illinois Archives Regional Depository (IRAD) for 16 west-central Illinois counties, including McDonough, is also in Macomb.

SERVICES

Researchers may use the collection in our facility. Our society also offers research services by mail. For details and fees, please contact us for additional information or visit our web site.
